

CARDINIA LEISURE SPORTS HEAT POLICY

Updated January 15th 2019

Basketball

- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 30 degrees 2 minutes per half will be removed from the game clock (18 Minute Halves).

In accordance with Basketball Victoria's Heat Policy:

1. Each team must also call a timeout before and after the compulsory timeout.
 2. In the event coaches do not call a timeout, the referee will intervene and call a timeout and attribute them to the respective teams.
 3. The on-court referee must call a time out at the earliest possible time at the midpoint of each half and the clock will stop for timeouts.
Overall minimum 3 Time Outs per Half in total required (2 Team and 1 Referee)
E.g. Time outs call at – 14:33, 09:00 and 03:51.*
- The clock will stop during compulsory timeouts, however when on-court temperature is over 35 degrees the clock will continue to run, unless it is the last minute of the first half or the last 3 minutes during the second half.
 - Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 40 degrees' games must be called off.
 - If a game has passed the half time break the team in front will be declared the winner. If this game has not passed this point, then the game will be declared a draw.

Netball

- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 30 degrees 1 minute per quarter will be removed.
- The break between quarters will be extended by 1 minute for each break period.
- The Centre position shall be given the option to swap positions once per quarter. This can be done via on court swap of positions or substitution off the bench.
- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 40 degrees' games must be called off.
- If a game has passed the half time break the team in front will be declared the winner. If this game has not passed this point, then the game will be declared a draw.

Floorball

- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 30 degrees 2 minutes per period will be removed.
- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 40 degrees' games must be called off.
- If a game has passed the end of the 2nd period break the team in front will be declared the winner. If this game has not passed this point, then the game will be declared a draw.
